Library News

With spring just around the corner, it's time to start doing spring cleaning! As you clean out those drawer and closets, remember that you can recycle out your old textile products to support the GA Band. There is a collection box just outside the main entrance to the library.

The WHS Library's "New to You Book/Movie Swap" is only three weeks away and we are needing items to swap! If you have some books, audiobooks or movies that you would like to swap or donate, please bring them to the library. Proceeds from the swap go to the Random Acts of Kindness club who will "pay it forward".
