

Just that the water fountains would be great to have but they would rather fix the problem of why the CTE hallway fountains don't work before spending a bunch of money on new ones that wont last forever. and the one that should be fixed should be outside of room 410 ;p